

Monthly THE JINDAL TIMES

• Vol-01 • Edi-03 • April 2023

events

Mental health comes first at JGU

Page 2

happenings

Camus promotes wide talent

Page 3

success stories

JSPC student makes it big globally

Page 4

Motley performs Aurat, Aurat, Aurat

EVENTS calendar

28TH MARCH
Bengali New Year
Venue: PAA
Time: 6-8pm

29TH-30TH MARCH
Rhapsody
Venue: Across JGU
Time: All Day

30TH MARCH
1970's theme party
Venue: ADDA
Time: 7-10pm

4TH MAY
Law School Art Exhibition
Venue: ADDA
Time: 10-6pm

JGLS contingent puts up prominent show at National Med-Arb Competition

The Jindal Global Law School (JGLS) contingent puts up a prominent show at Christ National Mediation-Arbitration Competition, with all finalists being our teams. Vartika Jain and Ayaan Gupta were pronounced the best Client-Counsel pair in the finals, while Vansh Malik and Aadithya Aravindh were the runners-up. The two mediators were Om Shelat and Amaan Alam. Om was adjudged the "Best Mediator" while Amaan was adjudged as the "Runners-Up Mediator": A big shout-out to the whole team! "It was a wonderful opportunity and a great learning experience competing against a number of teams," says Amaan.

RAQS, JGU Dance Society is selected for Hip Hop International Finals to be held in Mumbai in December 2023

PEEPAL SETS A BENCHMARK FOR MENTAL WELLNESS AT JGU

JGLS Student Council recently organized Peepal: The Wellness Fair, a three-day event from 21st-23rd March aimed at catering to the mental health needs of JGU community. The fair featured an array of workshops, seminars, and stalls for retail therapy, all designed to promote mental wellness and happiness.

The event kicked off with inaugural lectures and guest seminars, followed by a range of therapeutic activities, including meditation sessions, mental health screening, music therapy workshop, dog therapy workshop, dance movement therapy workshop, Nukkad Naatak, pottery workshop, artistic circle, movie screenings, and stalls for retail therapy.

The event's success was evident in the participation of more than 3,900 students. Paws for Healing: The Dog Therapy Workshop & Earthy Expressions: The Pottery Circle were particularly popular, attracting an huge crowd. Saurabh Samraat, the General Secretary of JGLS Student Council and the Chair of Peepal, expressed his gratitude towards the JGU community for their unwavering support in organizing the event.

Peepal: The Wellness Fair's success was evident in the participation of more than 3,900 students

"Peepal was a resounding success that brought the JGU community together to celebrate mental wellness, positivity, and acceptance. It was an incredible opportunity for us to make a meaningful impact, and we couldn't have done it without the unwavering support of the JGU community," said Saurabh.

ALUMNI NEWS

Few JGU students who have done exceedingly well in various fields

"JGU has not only helped me in shaping my goals but has also shaped my personality as well, it has happened through the constant support from the faculties and the various opportunities available in campus," says Sonam Tsering, the General Secretary of Tibetan Youth Congress.

"The journey began with Fortis Hospital as Executive - Sales and Marketing - followed by experiences into hospital and school industry. JGU has built up confidence in me to explore different areas of learning which motivates me to work in varied fields," says Priyanka Brar, working with Cloudbine Hospital in Operations department.

Team Allure showcases corporate ramp walk

A total of 15 students from Allure, the Fashion Society, visited SRM University for a maiden fashion show. The theme presented by JGU students was "Corporate Fashion".

"I had the honour of heading the team of Allure at SRM, where the fashion society of JGU had its first ever inter-college experience. It was an amazing experience, and the feeling after the show was ecstatic. It helped us gain confidence and learn the crucial manoeuvres, leaving room for enhancement," says Shruti Sachdev, President of Allure.

The event was SRM's Annual Techno Cultural Fest PRISMA 2K23. It was incredible to witness the students walking the ramp in bright costumes.

"JGU helped me understand how to shape my career goals significantly. When I joined the university, I was unaware of the opportunities in the corporate world," says Jay Jariwala, who works at Pixster Studio, a mobile app development company.

Sustainability is the new mantra for Jindalites

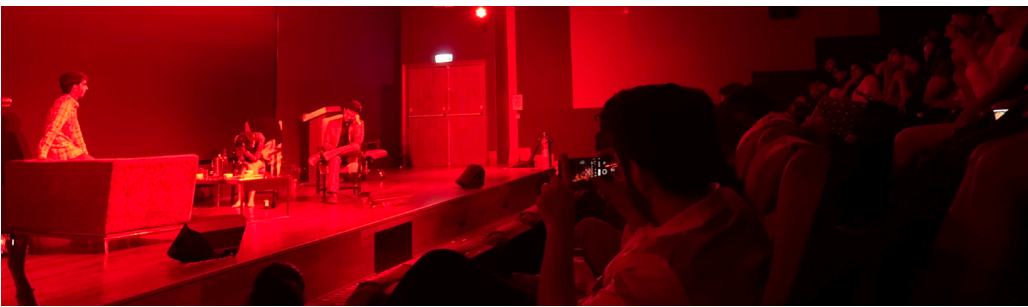

Students from the Jindal School of Environment and Sustainability organised Nature's Bazaar with the aim to raise awareness about sustainability and provide sustainable lifestyle alternatives for daily life use.

The Bazaar entailed of 10 stalls, ran by the students of the university themselves. The stalls varied from plants, thrift stores, ceramic goods to delicious vegan bakes and more!

"I was happy to see the students' response towards our products," says Mihika from JSES

"My stall Blue Crafts consisted of hand-made sustainable products, made by local artisans from Jaipur. The main idea was to promote and support traditional art and artists. We ended up getting sold out," says Mihika from JSES.

Camus 2023 showcases wide display of talent

The last edition of Camus featured three self-written productions, two adaptations, and one Nukkad Natak. Around 10 colleges from Delhi-NCR participated in 'Inquilab-e-Dastaan', the Nukkad Naatak Competition. Nukkad is a form of theatre where drama is done with a sense to help greater community with morals and problems of the society being the essence of it.

Forget-Me-Not was an adaptation of The Misunderstanding, originally written by the playwright Albert Camus. The plot takes place in modern day Mexico. The characters intersect on a night to remember all that was forgotten.

'And they were roommates' is a thank you to all roommates of past and the Gods of 80s Bollywood Action Comedies.

Siyasi Khoon was based around the influential Bhutto Political Family in Pakistan. The play Mehbooba revolved around a girl who joins a prostitution ring in Badnaam Galli, without knowing all the challenges that are waiting for her there.

MANAGEMENT FEST HELD WITH MULTIPLE EVENTS

One of the biggest management fests of O.P. Jindal Global University, Vanijya 3.0 was organised recently by the JGBS Student Council.

There were bunch of events hosted by JGU wide clubs/societies showcasing the student's entrepreneurial spirit and much more! Startup Expo, Design Thinking Challenge, Marshmellow Challenge and Monopoly were part of the fest. On the closing night, JGU Theatre Society performed a play, fashion society Allure showcased corporate fashion on the ramp, JGU Music Society gave a gala musical performance.

There were numerous food stalls and a state of the art production stage was set up for JGU students to showcase their talent.

JGU students showcase cultural diversity at campus

Cultural diversity has been a part and parcel of college life at JGU. The Tamil Community of JGU observed two days of cultural activities to celebrate the Tamil New Year. They had a gala lunch organised with an elaborate Tamil menu. The next day saw various cultural performances by Tamil students at ADDA.

Cultural diversity has been a part and parcel of college life at JGU

Similarly, students from the Northeast community of JGU came together to celebrate Bihu. They displayed various cultural performances and exhibited the traditional attire of the region. There was also a food tasting session of local delicacies, open to all students of the university. In the same fashion, Ugadi was celebrated by the Telugu community with an elaborate lunch. Students came in huge numbers to enjoy the Telugu food organised by the JGU Student Council.

WANT TO LEARN HORSE RIDING? JGU PROVIDES THE BEST OF THE OPPORTUNITY

JGLS WINS NATIONAL ROUNDS OF 8TH IBA INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION 2023

Team JGLS won the National Rounds of the 8th IBA International Criminal Moot Court Competition 2023 organised by the National Law University, Delhi. The team comprising of Aamir Kapadia, Aryan Mehta, Keshav Menon, Nehanshu Rao and Tanushree Gupta, will now represent JGU in the Global Rounds at The Hague, Netherlands from 2nd to 9th June 2023.

Summer School for JSPC student at London School of Economics

Paavan, a second year student at Jindal School of Psychology & Counselling has been accepted into Summer School at London School of Economics. The course focuses on 'Understanding Foreign Policy: Diplomacy of War, Profit and Justice', which examines the key concepts and schools of thought in the study of foreign policy. We are proud of her!

Team JGU declared Overall Champion in 10th edition of Magnus

Yet another achievement for JGU as it is declared the overall champion in Magnus 2023. It was the 10th edition of one of the university's most prestigious sports fest. It was also the first time that a full-fledged sports tournament was held post Covid'19 in the university premises. This time Magnus witnessed a participation of over 30 universities/institutions across India. With over 2,000 students, Magnus also had the highest number ever of students participation - 819 players from outside

It was for the first time that a full-fledged sports tournament was held post Covid'19 in the university premises universities, 400 JGU players, and more than 500 student volunteers. A total of 25 sporting events were held, which includes athletics, badminton, basketball, carom, chess, cricket, football, table-tennis, volleyball. JGU was adjudged champion in 13 events and runners-up in 13 events.

JGU students win big at prestigious forums

The JGLS ADR Society team comprising Kevin Kimi Alexander and Kessav N Shankar was adjudged the 'Best Negotiating Team' at the CPR International Mediation Competition 2023 held in Sao Paulo, Brazil, from March 30 - April 1, 2023.

The team also won three special awards, Best Teamwork - Jindal Global Law School (JGLS); Best Counsel - Kevin Kimi Alexander; and Second Best Client - Kessav N Shankar. The team also consisted of Meher Shah as the student mediator representative.

The team comprising of Aditi Singh and Anushka Vinay Kumar emerged as Semi-Finalists at the Trilegal-Nalsar CCI Anti-Trust Moot, amongst the 32 teams that competed after the Memo Qualifier rounds. The team would like to express its gratitude towards Prof. Karan Latayan, Prof. Kavya Lalchandani, their Student Coach Divyanshu Dembi, and Vignesh Ramanathan.