

success story

Double medal for student at national level

Page 1

events

An initiative to help the needy

Page 2

happenings

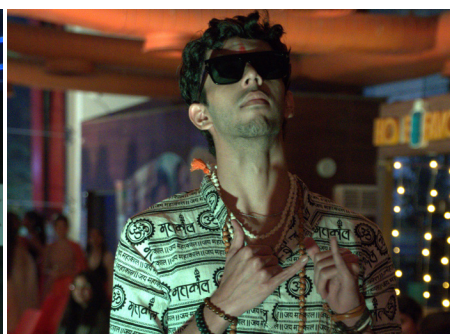

JSPC SC & the art of story telling

Page 2

Students display creative side at 'Bollywood Night'

Fashion show by student volunteers of Allure was the highlight of the evening

Double medal for JGU student at national-level championship

Arjan Singh Nagra, a first-year student of BCom LLB, recently won a gold medal in the Junior National Equestrian Championship. This is his fifth consecutive podium finish in national level Eventing competitions.

Just a month back, he won laurels at CCN Eventing Championship held at the Army Polo Riding Club, New Delhi. He was placed 1st in Novice and 2nd in the Pre Novice category. Arjan was the youngest participant in both categories.

Anirudha Singh Naruka, student of BAGA - 21 JSIA, qualifies for the prestigious All India Inter University Athletics Championship 2024

Project Daan: An initiative by Rotaract Club of JGU

The Rotaract Club of O.P. Jindal Global University successfully executed a donation drive "Project Daan". Through the drive the club members donated essential items such as blankets, clothes, shoes, mattresses, and other necessities to the needy.

"The initiative aimed at helping the needy during the harsher winter months. Through the collective efforts of our team and the unwavering support from key individuals and departments at JGU, we hope made a positive impact on the lives of those in need," says Harshita Dhakad, President of Rotaract Club of JGU.

JSPC CLUB EVENT REFLECTS UPON THE CONCEPT OF SELF-REFLECTION

Jindal School of Psychology and Counselling club Mindscapes-Expression Through Art organised "Too Phased", an event based on the concept of self-reflection. Here, the students engaged themselves in activities like mask painting, thread painting, open mic etc.

"At its core, the motive behind the event is self-improvement. Through various activities, we tried to examine our actions and decisions, understand their consequences, and learn from them," says the president of the club.

UnKahi: An evening of stories & story telling

With the idea that everyone has a story to tell, the Student Council of Jindal School of Psychology and Counselling organised UnKahi.

The theme for this year was Exploring Hues of Affection, which provided a place for everyone to communicate their truth, their unique experiences with love, whether about friendship, relationships, self-love, etc.

"UnKahi 2.0 was a human library where students and faculty of JSPC came together to connect via storytelling and other forms of expressions," says Suhaani Manektala, President of JSPC SC.

The theme for this year edition was "Exploring Hues of Affection"

Some free time spent colouring in the nature's lap

"Paint with Nature," a collaboration between Literary & Fine Arts Society and the Jindal School of Environment and Sustainability Student Council (JSES SC), was all about celebrating the beauty of the natural world and channelling it into artistic creations.