

celebrations

Talent, talk, tunes
and thrills

Page 2

awards & accolades

Under 25
Summit in campus

Page 3

happenings

Photo exhibition by Aperture

Page 4

Polo skills on display in a friendly match

EVENTS calendar

15TH-16TH APRIL

JGBS Conclave

Venue: Crossover

Commons

Time: 4pm to 11pm

18TH-20TH APRIL

Youthopia

Venue: Multiple venues

Time: All Day

22ND APRIL

Bengali New Year

Venue: PAA

Time: 7pm to 11pm

26TH-27TH APRIL

Dzamling

Venue: Crossover

Commons

Time: 4pm to 11pm

JGU students shine at international ADR competition held at Tbilisi

Gauri Menon, Nandana Nebhu and Reva Satish Makhija emerged as Finalists at the World Rounds of the INADR International Law School Tournament held in Tbilisi, Georgia. In addition to this, they were also adjudged as the 3rd Best Negotiating Team (Finals).

Additionally, they also received awards for their performance in the three Preliminary Rounds, the team placed as Top 10 Best Mediating Teams, Top 10 Best Negotiating Pairs (Gauri Menon and Reva Satish Makhija), Top 5 in the Best Mediator Award Category (Reva Satish Makhija) and the Mary Lou Frank Award for Best Reflective Practice (Reva Satish Makhija).

JGU Society Thadeem and RAQS take part in Sonipat Half Marathon, attended by Haryana Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini, among others dignitaries

Campus confluence: Talent, talk, tunes and thrills

JGU Music Society students win all-round accolades in Symfiesta

The JGU Music Society once again proved its musical excellence by securing top honors at Symfiesta 2025, the annual inter-college cultural fest hosted by Symbiosis Law School, Noida Campus.

The fest, known for its vibrant celebration of art, music, and culture, witnessed participation from premier institutions across the country. Among them, the JGU Music Society stood out, earning widespread accolades for their powerful and versatile performances across various categories.

'Angaare', band from the JGU Music Society, has won the 2nd prize in Battle of the Bands. Angaare is a band of six members, including Aniket Ramesh Sekhar, Kavin Monesh, Bismit Borah, Suryakiran TS, Aaryaman Chaturvedi and Vasanth Jayaram. They performed two of their original compositions, Angaare and Inferno's Rise at this fest.

'Raag', another band from the JGU Music Society, has won the 3rd prize. This was Raag's debut in inter college competitions. Raag is a band of 7 members including Nora Varma, Riyan Karbhari, Sourojit Ganguly, Shaastra Umesh, Eash Goyal, Eashan Goyal and Aaryan Agarwal. They performed an original composition, Only Delusional (OD) along with popular songs, Dil se re and Har kisi ko x Humma Humma.

Jiya Charak, one of the many talented members of the JGU Music Society, has won 1st prize in the Solo Singing category at Symfiesta. Sanchana M Hemanth, another talented member from the JGU Music Society, has won the 3rd prize in the Solo Singing category.

The victories at Symfiesta not only highlight the talent nurtured within the university but also reinforce JGU's commitment to fostering holistic development through arts and culture.

Under25 Summit celebrates young changemakers

The summit featured an array of panel discussions, keynote addresses, music workshops...

The prestigious Under 25 Summit, India's largest youth festival celebrating creativity and innovation, was successfully hosted at the O.P. Jindal Global University campus by JGBS and JSIA Student Councils.

The summit witnessed an overwhelming response from students and youngsters seeking inspiration, innovation, and impact, making it a vibrant confluence of ideas, discussions, and inspiration.

"The Under25 Summit is not just another event—it's a movement. With a massive youth following and a strong digital presence, Under25 has emerged as the go-to platform for self-expression, personal growth, and youth-led change," says Khushi Punni, the Cultural Secretary from JGBS Student Council.

The summit featured an array of engaging panel discussions, keynote addresses, music workshops, and interactive sessions. Esteemed panelists from various industries including media, digital marketing, entrepreneurship, and creative arts graced the occasion and shared their insights with the student community.

MAMMOGRAPHY CAMP FOR SUPPORT STAFF BY ROTARACT CLUB

The Rotaract Club of OPJGU, in collaboration with Rotary Gurugram and with the support of District 3012, successfully organized a Mammography Camp on March 20, 2025, at the university premises. This initiative aimed at promoting women's health and early detection of breast cancer.

During the camp, over 20 female staff members above the age of 40 underwent screenings conducted by medical professionals, ensuring timely awareness and medical support.

The initiative aimed at early detection of breast cancer

Additionally, as part of its commitment to menstrual hygiene, the Rotaract Club also donated sanitary pads during the event. "We take great pride in the fact that for the past two years, the Rotaract Club of OPJGU has been donating sanitary pads every month to the Sodexo lady staff, reinforcing our dedication to their health and well-being."

Lumière: Aperture's visual odyssey

This semester's Aperture exhibition "Lumière" showcased some of the most stunning photographs captured by the student of JGU - from breathtaking landscapes and urban jungles to adorable critters and cameras clicking around the world. Here, nothing escapes the keen eye of a talented photographer. With the insights of acclaimed photographer Mr. Chandan Gomes, the exhibition collection was synergised and added stars to an everlit sky.

The bi-annual exhibition, Lumière, captivated hearts with its immersive display of images and an atmosphere brimming with positivity. Feedback boards buzzed with appreciative comments, while live performances by JGU's own artists and musicians, courtesy of Thadeem and the JGU Music Society, added to the vibrant energy of the event with students swaying to the rhythm.

The exhibition e-magazine, developed by its own members, serves as a reminder to the myriad of photographs featured that day at the tip of ones finger. With this, Aperture adds another click to memory for its evergrowing community.

Asian Parliamentary Debate organised on campus

Commemorating the birthday of Shri Naveen Jindal, Arthaniti and Debate Society collaborated to organise the Asian Parliamentary Debate on 18th and 19th March. The conversations were surrounded around economics, geo-politics and international relations.

The participants engaged in interactive and knowledgeable arguments through the preliminary, semi finals and finals rounds.