"The Dawn Watch: Joseph Conrad in a Global World"

by

Professor Maya Jasanoff
Coolidge Professor of History

Talk Abstract

Migration, terrorism, the tensions between global capitalism and nationalism, the promise and peril of a technological and communications revolution: these forces shaped the life and work of Joseph Conrad at the dawn of the twentieth century. As an immigrant to England from Poland, and in travels from Malaysia to the Congo to the Caribbean, Conrad navigated an interconnected world, and captured it in a literary oeuvre of extraordinary depth. In a compelling blend of history, biography and travelogue, Maya Jasanoff follows Conrad's routes and the stories of his most famous works, in a spellbinding expedition into the dark heart of Conrad's world - and through it, to our own.
