"Criminal Investigation and Investment Treaty Claims in International Arbitration"

by

Mr. Rajat Rana

Associate, Dechert LLP, Washington, D.C.

Mr. Rajat Rana is an associate with Dechert LLP, specializing in international arbitration and litigation in New York and Washington, D.C. He received his BA LL.B (Hons.) degree from NLSIU Bangalore in 2006 and received a post-graduate degree in law from Stanford Law School. Later, he also received a Juris Doctor (JD) degree from Virginia School of Law.

Abstract

Criminal investigation is an important issue in investment treaty arbitration. In particular, the talk will touch upon corruption and international investment treaty arbitration issues. The talk will also highlight the importance of private international law, specifically conflict of law issues in legal disputes. In addition, the talk will also discuss the recent developments in international treaty arbitration and the career opportunities available to students in this field.
